

Customizing Quantify

Quantify has many features that you can customize. You can rearrange the columns in the interface and select English or Spanish as the interface language. You can enable/disable features that affect the entire application and all users in the Global Options dialog. You can also enable/disable features that apply only to your account in the My Options dialog. The result is the application that best suits your business.