About Quantify Options

Quantify provides many options through which you can customize its features and interface to best suit your circumstances and requirements. Global Options affect all users. The Global Options dialog is separated into multiple tabs, each with its own article. Individual users can use the My Options dialog to configure Quantify for their specific requirements. Numbering options enables you to customize numbering (for invoices, estimates, etc.).